

Bulletin Bulls
BY HARRY R. FARMER

The sympathy of all his friends will go to the aid of the president of the Kiwanis Club, who is suffering from a slight dislocation of the jaw. He tried to introduce the Bulletin at the luncheon on Monday.

There is something fragrant about the fact that Magistrate Winter and Fred Greenway, who tried to introduce the Bulletin at the luncheon on Monday, did not appreciate the spiciness of the situation.

In the latest economy, Ontario might use its booting hench as a very active instead of allowing it to be destroyed.

An optimist is a guy who consoles himself by thinking it's only nine more months to summer.

Wonder if an ewer feels any happier now than in season again.

There's one good thing about bootleggers: most of them are left-tailors.

Among the things that have no value as antiques may be reckoned women and rage.

Calgary Herald says: "Life has hard roads plenty!"—Anyone who's tried to drive down to Calgary lately will doubt it.

Must be tough to live in one of those countries where they never get any winter sports all way Christmas.

According to poultry experts, music causes hens to lay more eggs. Possibly a musician's wife would make 'em throw some.

Windsor, Ontario, says that if all great cities it is an object of envy.—Where is Windsor, Ontario?

"Are You Making Your Dreams Come True?" an advertisement says. Not on your life, we suffer from indignation!

Patriot women are lured from the stock exchange by the fact that they might be in bombs concealed in their purses. It's as simple as a woman can do to conceal herself in her clothing.

A NEW ENCYCLOPEDIA 70.—The garden world. He lives a calm and peaceful life. Ye is no favorite.

Unlabeled in no wars or strife, and fail to make a hit. Back stage, alone, it's not enough to mind one's own affairs.

And not to put on airs. And to refrain from acting round, and meet his fellow men. Would be more than fair, I'll be bound.

And would be courted then. If he would read on his hind legs, and dance around and sing. And drink like other hard-boiled eggs.

He'd find his mail would bring him calls to picnic, dance and rout. And all goodfellows. At least, he'd be invited out. On many a falling tip.

PHILADELPHIA PACKED WITH FIGHT FANS

View of Great Battle Finds
Lawyers Milling in Preliminaries

Associated Press
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 22—

The day before the battle found the Dempsey-Tunney championship bout well behind a smoke screen of legal entanglements and the city of Philadelphia, swamped by the advance influx of one of the greatest crowds that ever gathered for a sporting spectacle anywhere, prepared itself for a shakedown.

None of the dozen or more court cases started off by Jack Dempsey, Tunney's former manager, or H. C. Clement, Chicago promoter, appeared likely to upset plans for the bout, but rival squads of lawyers were prepared for any and all vicissitudes of the law.

A hearing, scheduled for this afternoon on application for an injunction to stop the fight, brought in Clements, who claims he has a prior contract binding Tunney's services.

There will be no interference so far as Governor Thibault or city officials are concerned. No championship fight in the history of the state has been so thoroughly scrutinized by the courts.

ATTACK UPON TOM MOORE IS UNSUCCESSFUL

President of Trades And Labor Congress Wins
Wholesale Approval

Canadian Press
MONTREAL, Sept. 22—

Attacks on the paper of John W. Brown, organizer of the United Association of Plumbers, Gas and Steam Fitters at Tuesday's session of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress, now assembled here, to do away with the regular yearly salary for the president of the congress, failed after much debate in a wholesale endorsement of President Tom Moore.

Only Mr. Brown himself voted for his motion.

Delegates J. W. Wilkinson, of Edmonton, Alta., said that never at any time in the history had the congress a president who enjoyed the respect of the labor movement, of the general public and of the government.

Mr. Wilkinson, who was elected president of the congress, said that he was not a member of the labor movement, but he was a member of the public and of the government.

Weather in Western Canada Proves Dominating Influence

WINNIPEG, Sept. 22.—(Unfettered) while weather in western Canada, which is causing a serious delay in harvesting operations, continues the dominating factor in grain trading here, but erratic movements characterized the wheat market today. Reports of snow in Saskatchewan, and then reacted to below Tuesday's close and finally closed at 12 1/2 cents, the day's high of 12 3/4 cents, the day's low of 12 1/4 cents, and the day's range of 1/4 cent. Early in the session there was good local buying, but exporters were not in the pit, while the foreign market generally showed no interest, and "farms" taking profits were active. Exporters were good buyers of oats, with prices reaching new high levels, but other coarse grains were quiet. A full day's trade was quiet. Offerings of each were small. Wheat today and a fair trade was reported, with spreads closing in wheat. Cash coarse grain were neglected.
